Ideas

#1

Outfit Picker

-Will help you style an outfit and mix and match accessories.

#2

Racing game

-F1 cars but in the Mario Kart universe, where instead of racing they need to complete puzzles/riddles to get to the next level.

#3

Book Summarizer

-Put in a genre of your choice and pick a book based on the summary and goodreads rating.

Storyboard #1

Outfit picker (inspired by Cher's closet in Clueless)

Date 18th April 2023

Notes

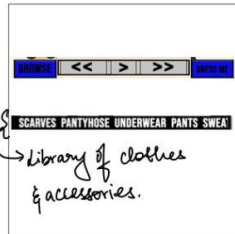

The idea is to create an outfit picker, which is interactive and helps you pick out an outfit from your closet, or in this case, it will give you an outfit that's already been fed into it. The inspiration for this has been taken from the movie 'Clothes'.

Notes

The system will give you a complete look, paired with shoes & accessories. The looks will be created through a method of trial & error.

Notes

More on the trial & error process:

↳ If the system thinks you have chosen a good outfit, it will display 'perfect'; if not, it will display 'error' and prompt you to try again.
↳ There will also be 'browse' to look for more options, 'dress me' to finalize that option.

Storyboard #2

Inspired by Mario Kart and Formula 1

Formula 1 racing but with aspects of Mario Kart. The game will function around human interaction and it will use the keyboard to interact with the game.

⇒ I want the visuals of the game to be very pixel focused, and inspired by old video games and for it to be very nostalgic.
